

GERMAN BAZAAR ENDED; MORE THAN $750,000 RAISED

Great Charity for War Widows and Orphans Exceeds All Estimates.

SALE OF "LEFT OVERS."

Workmen Begin Clearing Place
at Midnight in Preparation for Big Fight.

With the noisy tap of a workman's hammer, at a minute after midnight this morning, the German Charity Bazaar in aid of the widows and orphans of the soldiers of the Central Powers, which had kept Madison Square Garden filled for twelve days, being attended by more than a million persons and yielding three-quarters of a million dollars, came to an end. Within twelve hours, or before noon to-day, every vestige of the bazaar, had to be removed that the great amphitheatre might be made ready for the Willard-Moran battle to-morrow evening.

And while the demolitioners were at work, Julius P. Meyer of the Hamburg-American Line, treasurer of the bazaar, with thirty clerks, checkers and counters, was busy in his offices back of the concert hall gathering, auditing and totaling the gigantic receipts of the undertaking.

"I will not be able to give finally accurate figures as to the receipts of the bazaar for a day or two," Mr. Meyer said, "but we have raised at least three-quarters of a million dollars for our charity. Our expenses have amounted to perhaps $50,000 during the twelve days of the bazaar, so there will be a very gratifying sum for the widows and orphans over all."

"NEW YORK DAY" ADDS $100,000 TO FUND.

The daily receipts of the fair have averaged something more than $50,000 and yesterday, which was the "New York Day," not less than $100,000 flowed into the coffers. It was the greatest day of all and the Garden was packed with the crowd which streamed in and out all day long. No great was the crush that a police detail was necessary both afternoon and evening to compel those entering to keep to one door, leaving another clear for those going out.

The capacity of the Garden has been estimated at about 15,000 persons, but

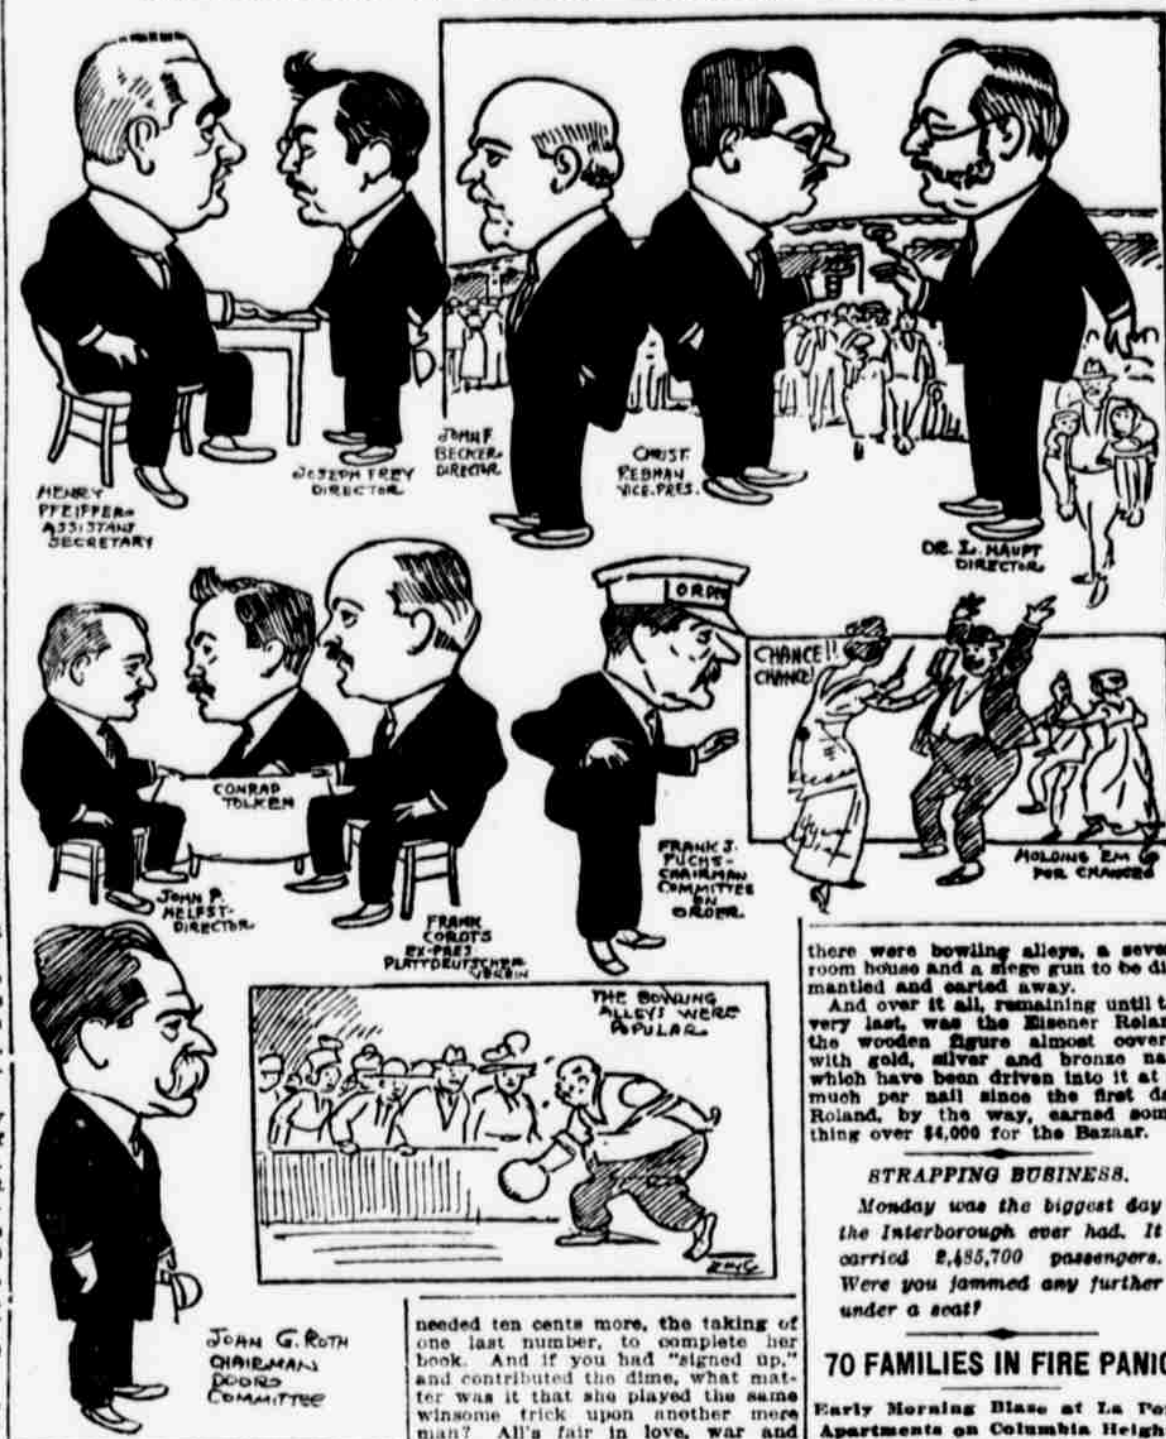

Freckle-Face

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of othine, double strength, from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.—Advt.
